

Terms and Conditions

1. Service Provider

The service provider is:

- Name: Barbora Maalderink
- Business ID (IČO): 01257731
- Registered Address: Šumavská 1119/24, Prague 2, 120 00, Czech Republic
- Email: bara.maalderink@gmail.com

(hereinafter referred to as the “Provider”)

2. Scope of Services

The Provider offers services consisting of the preparation and facilitation of the sale of the Client's used items through selected online selling platforms.

The service may include in particular:

- receiving items for safekeeping during the sales period,
- photographing and measuring items,
- creating descriptions and listings,
- communication with potential buyers,
- managing the sales process,
- packing and shipping sold items.

3. Acceptance of Items

The Client hands over to the Provider only items that are their property and that they are legally entitled to sell.

The items must comply with the conditions stated on the Provider's website.

The Provider reserves the right to refuse acceptance of any item without stating a reason.

Upon request, a handover protocol listing the transferred items may be issued at the time of handover.

4. Sales Conditions

The Provider sells items through their own user accounts on selected online selling platforms.

The Provider determines the selling price based on the condition of the item, current market conditions, and the likelihood of successful sale.

The Provider does not guarantee that any item will be sold or that a specific sale price will be achieved.

The usual listing period is approximately 4–6 weeks.

5. Commission and Payment of Proceeds

The commission is determined according to the current price list published on the Provider's website.

After a sale is completed and payment is received from the buyer, the Client will be paid the proceeds of the sale minus the agreed commission.

The payout date is determined individually by agreement between the Provider and the Client.

6. Unsold Items

If an item is not sold, the Client will be asked to collect it.

With the Client's explicit consent, the Provider may donate unsold items to a charitable organization or other nonprofit entity.

If the Client fails to collect unsold items within 30 days of being requested to do so, and no alternative agreement is made, the Provider is entitled to dispose of the items at their own discretion, in particular by donating or environmentally disposing of them.

7. Liability

The Provider agrees to handle the entrusted items with reasonable care.

The Provider is not responsible for normal wear and tear, unsold items, or any decrease in market value.

The Provider is only liable for damage caused by intentional misconduct or gross negligence.

The Provider is not responsible for loss, damage, or destruction of shipments caused by the carrier, nor for any issues arising during transport that are beyond their control.

The Provider is not responsible for the actions of buyers or for any claims, returns, or disputes arising after the item has been handed over to the buyer.

8. Termination of Cooperation

The Client may request termination of cooperation at any time and return of unsold items.

The Provider reserves the right to terminate cooperation at any time, especially if the Client provides false information regarding the origin, condition, or authenticity of the items.

9. Final Provisions

These Terms and Conditions become effective on the date of their publication on the Provider's website.

The Provider reserves the right to amend these Terms and Conditions at any time.
